Tilak's presence lifts your energy and brings you into a state of unconditional joy. Those he touches begin to change very quickly with the ability to focus with free thinking and greater feeling.

SEMINAR APRIL 21, 2010 9:30AM-5:30PM

Come and experience an incredible day with Tilak whose presence and energy will shut the dialogues in your mind and open your heart. This will be a day of revelation, opening and awakening through Tilak's unique presentation of the nature of reality.

Tilak will also demonstrate how we are holding resistance to the flow of life and there will be practical demonstrations of transference and transmission of energy and clear light that will unleash mind traps and open your heart to love and wisdom. You will receive a one-on-one session with Tilak and release into vertical ascendance, spontaneous clarity and unconditional wonder.
